

VARDHAMAN COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING (AUTONOMOUS)

Shamshabad– 501 218, Hyderabad

Plantation Drive in Adopted Villages and Campus 15. July . 2017

As a part of environmental concern the events that are at regular basis like plantation on seasonal basis and do at different localities of the campus as well as in adopted villages. Beyond that the students are going to be participated on weekends at lakes plantation as well as government programs like Haritha Haram. The events if the volunteers are participated they know the importance of environment and how their technology to be utilized for the benefit of the society and also know what are the issues raises in the society and how to eradicate it by communicate with the local people